

I hereby request that the commission not grant approval of Broad Band over Powerlines. The interference found by hams in the Raleigh NC area proves that interference will damage the ability for any amateur or governmental service from being able to carry out normal and emergency communications. In the day and age of heighten security of this nation, adding a service that posses to cause harmful interference would be devastating.